Privacy notice

The collection of personal and business information enables the Northern Territory Government care of its agency the Department of Tourism and Hospitality (DTH) and DTH's contractor to provide delegates with support and assistance relevant to this expression of interest. Without your personal and business information, DTH's contractor cannot progress and finalise your travel in the program.

DTH may also add (or update) your data in its customer relationship management system so that you can receive up-to-date and relevant business information.

DTH has a legal obligation under the Information Act not to disclose personal information other than for the primary purpose for which it was collected, unless otherwise agreed to, or authorised by law. The DTH will handle your personal information in accordance with its Privacy Policy which outlines how you can access or seek to correct your personal information, or lodge a complaint about a breach of the Northern Territory's Privacy Principles. You can find out more about how the DTH manages your personal information by contacting the Privacy Officer via GPO Box 3200, Darwin, NT 0801, or by telephoning (08) 8999 6208 or emailing FOI@nt.gov.au

Talent release

Participants who attend the events may be captured in visual and audio recordings, either as an individual or part of a group. These visual and audio recordings may be reproduced for use in advertisements, promotional material and training and development materials prepared by and/or published for and on behalf of the Northern Territory Government in connection with the Aboriginal tourism sector.

Visual and audio recordings and other personal information described above may be supplied to contractors and service providers engaged by the Northern Territory Government to develop or produce advertisements, promotional material and training and development materials in connection with the program but will not be provided to any other person or organisation for purposes other than advertising, promotions or training and development.

The permission will continue until permission is revoked in writing to the Northern Territory Government. In the situation where permission is revoked, every effort will be made to remove the image from future distribution; however this may not be possible or practical in some situations.

Other expenses

All incidentals are to be met by the expression of interest applicant. This includes any travel including transfers and accommodation changes requested or required after contractor have provided the approved expression of interest application with confirmed travel and accommodation arrangements.
